

America's Spiritual and Cultural Darkness, What's Next?

"Those who do not learn history are doomed to repeat it." –George Santayana.

Unfortunately, Americans today are ignoring history. They're ignoring the failures of past power nations and empires. We are ignoring world history. We are also ignoring our own past and what made America great.

For this week's briefing Dr. Everett Piper joins the Economic War Room® to share the risks ahead ahead for America. As a nation, we've refused to live by 10 simple laws and the first consequence is loss of freedom. Soon we may find ourselves being ruled by a tyrannical individual or government.

Right now, big culture and the corporate world is seeking to control our every move and we're allowing that in a sense by our engagement and our buying of products and our acquiescence to corporate power.

America is becoming less of a nation of freedom and now a nation of license. We are now being subjected to contrived laws made up by man rather than those simple ones that are given to us by God. There is a way to fight back and it is important we stand together for truth.

Your Mission: To Stand for Truth! We shouldn't focus on feelings and elevating opinions, but instead, speak the truth in love.

Ep. 4-149 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Special Report. This includes conversations with Kevin Freeman and Dr. Everett Piper.

Dr. Everett Piper is the former president of Oklahoma Wesleyan University (OKWU). He is the author of Grow Up! and Why I Am a Liberal, and Other Conservative Ideas and the viral op-ed, "This is not a Day Care. It's a University!" In 2015 he received the Jeanne Kirkpatrick Award for Academic Freedom from the Bradley Foundation and the Conservative Political Action Committee (CPAC). Piper is a sought-after speaker and frequent guest on news programs discussing academic and religious liberty, among other touchstones. He has been featured on FOX & Friends, NBC Today! Show, Varney & Co., The O'Reilly Factor, The Glenn Beck Show, and a host of other radio and television venues. Piper also writes routinely for a number of publications, including [example, example, and example]. He actively participates on a variety of councils relating to cultural engagement and public policy.

 Special Thanks to Dr. Everett Piper. Dr. Piper helped us launch the National Security Investment Consultant Institute (NSIC). We owe a great debt of gratitude for him capturing the vision and giving us that initial push to get it started.

1. A look at where America is today based on history – Dr. Piper shares his observations.

“If God doesn’t judge America, then He owes Sodom and Gomorrah an apology.” –John MacArthur

- » Americans are selfish and sensual.
- » We are worshipping license rather than God’s law.
- » As a nation, we have failed to live by the 10 commandments.
- » The biblical example of the Israelites shows us that there are consequences for not obeying God.
- » If we don’t learn from the history of the past, then we are doomed to repeat the same mistakes.

“Initially, God only gave us ten simple laws, and if we would have agreed to live by those laws, we didn’t need any others. And frankly, Jesus summarized those ten by stating that they could be obeyed in two. So, we refuse to live by ten or two. So, what do we get today? Reams and reams and reams upon reams of little laws that rush in to fill the vacuum down to the point where they’re telling us what pronouns we can use and can’t use and how to use the bathroom. This is not a nation of freedom. This is a nation of license that has now been subjected to contrived laws made up by man rather than those simple ones that are given to us by God.” –Dr. Everett Piper

GK Chesterton told us that if you get rid of the big laws of God, you don’t get liberty. You’re going to get thousands and thousands of little laws that rush in to fill the vacuum.

2. Foolishness and Depravity: The Roman Empire or America?

- » America is turning from God and exploring depravity!
 - Don Lemon, the week before Easter, went on The View and told the people watching that Christianity and the Church should reexamine its two-thousand-year tradition and teachings on sexuality.
- » Does Don Lemon think he has the authority to rewrite the biblical teachings?
- » Most would prefer to stick with what God says and the two-thousand-year standard of sexual morality.
- » The Roman Empire fell from this sort of foolishness and depravity.
- » We need the Truth as our measuring rod!

"We know that the Roman Empire fell because of internal depravity. We know that when you lose your moorings, when there is no measuring rod outside of those things being measured, when your culture no longer has truth as a judge, as the referee blows the whistle on the game, you're going to become subject to the rule of the game." –Dr. Everett Piper

Lessons in History – The Truth saved David Horowitz! Beware of a culture ruled by gangs.

David Horowitz explains in his intellectual autobiography, Left Illusions.

- He was part of the Black Panthers in the 60s but is now a conservative.
- He realized the truth, and that his ideas were leading to violence.
- He repented (not necessarily in the Christian sense) of the sin of allowing and celebrating that culture would be ruled by the gang.
- He also saw that the chaos of the gang needs to be controlled and that would lead to the rule of a tyrant.
- It is this acknowledgment of history that led to repentance.

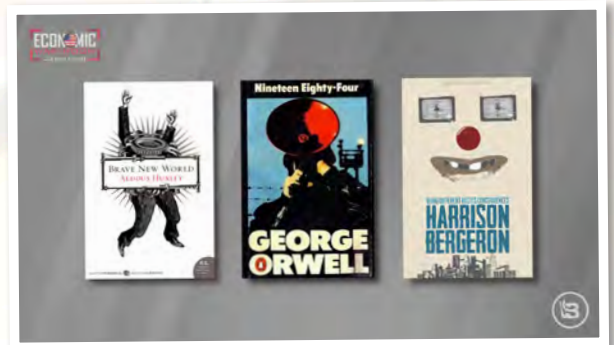

"In other words, the gang made him terrified, and he was part of that gang, and he recognized that if they're going to kill my best friend, they'll kill me. And this is what has led to the intellectual conversion of some other liberals of our times, such as Dave Rubin. This is what led Thomas Sowell to recognize that he was wrong in his Marxist days. And now he embraces freedom and capitalism. It's this acknowledgment that history tells us that the rule of the gang will crush all dissent. But it won't end there because then the chaos of the gang needs to be controlled by something and it's going to be controlled by the rule of one tyrant." –Dr. Everett Piper

3. Is America headed toward a dystopian future? Watch for Big Brother, Big Culture, and Control of the Mind.

Examples of this dystopian future from literature are Brave New World by Aldous Huxley, Nineteen Eighty-Four by George Orwell and Harrison Bergeron by Kurt Vonnegut.

America's future could be an amalgamation of these three books.

- » Big Brother - Orwell talks about Big Brother controlling our every move and constantly watching us.
 - We can see some of that right now in terms of big government and the control and the power that government wants to have over our daily lives.
- » Being Controlled by Big Culture - Huxley talks more about the problem as allowing ourselves to be controlled rather than the problem being the controller.
 - The corporate world is seeking to control our every move. Well, we're allowing that in a sense by our engagement and our buying of products and our acquiescence to corporate power.
- » Equity – Dumbing Down America - Vonnegut describes how big government and the corporate world want to dumb everything down to the level of an egalitarian society here there is not distinction.
 - The "Big Culture" wants men and women to be equal in athletics. Men can compete in women's athletics.

Woe unto us!

"It's the mourning of the prophet Isaiah, 'woe unto them who call evil, good, and good, evil, bitter, sweet, and sweet, bitter.' Let me paraphrase. Woe unto those who call men, women, and women men; woe unto those who try to make all things equal. Woe unto those who reverse the definitions of life. That is exactly where we are right now." -Everett Piper

- » Claiming that men have no advantage over women in athletics ignores the facts.
- » There are multiple high school male sprinters faster than the fastest biological woman in the world from the Olympics.
- » God created male and female in His image as distinctions that complement each other. There is balance and complementarianism.
- » There is not egalitarian radical equality! That denies what God intended to do.

4. Brave New World is an example of the harm our sensual desires create.

- » Brave New World talks about a drug known as soma that allows for "complete sexual freedom." This is actually sexual bondage.
- » The book also mentions feelies. Feelies was this device where after you worked your day, you came home from the factory, you went into your apartment, your cubicle by yourself. You didn't have any social interaction and you looked at your little screen and you watched what is best described as porn.
 - This is exactly what is happening today. People sit at home with their weed and porn.
 - We have become a culture focused on drugs.

"We've become a culture that wants to numb the mind, numb the soul, numb the intellect so that we can just look at our iPhones, look at our smartphones, and engage in some sort of distraction." -Everett Piper

ALERT: This is being sold to us as liberty!

“You can sleep with whomever you want to or have any sexual encounter you want, and you can take any drug that you want to. But I want to start a business. I want to start a lemonade stand as a kid or I want to start a business as an adult. No, you can’t do that. That might not be safe. So, we’ve been sold this lie of what liberty is and we’ve given complete control like 1984 by Orwell. They watch everything. They monitor social media. If you say the wrong thing, you get canceled or cut off.” –Kevin Freeman

5. A review of how we have lost our distinction between License and Liberty. Dr. Piper Explains:

What Is Freedom?

Jesus Christ is the thing that sets us free to live in the grand and glorious boundaries, those few simple boundaries that God gave us.

- » We have lost the understanding of the distinction between license and liberty.
- » Being able to do anything you want is sexual license, not freedom.
- » We are told in scripture that when you give yourself over to sin, that sin controls you and you lose your freedom to it. It governs every aspect of your life!
- » The liberty we find in Christ is what sets us free.
- » God gave us boundaries to live in for our protection.
- » We can enjoy the playground then we recognize that the fences around the playground are for our own good.

WARNING: License that people demand today is actually bondage.

6. Civics - Emulating the generations of the past.

“We should emulate the generation of the first-century church, that church, the church of Peter and Paul, the church of John and Jude, the church that was the first generation, the church that actually witnessed the death, resurrection of Jesus Christ and his ascension into heaven.” –Dr. Everett Piper

Lessons From The Biblical Generation

We should emulate the generation of the first century Church.

- » They were facing a lot of similar issues in culture to the ones we face now.
- » Roman society wasn't all that different from our culture.
- » They had the same debauchery and license, as well as the same giving themselves to being controlled by the government and by sin.
- » We should emulate the New Testament.
- » We shouldn't focus on feelings and elevating opinions, but instead, speak the truth in love.

Love is not synonymous with sex. It is a verb that calls upon us to care enough for our brothers and sisters to confront them and help them grow up!

Lessons from The First American Generation and the Greatest Generation of WW-II

We should also emulate the first generation of the United States.

- » John Adams said that our Constitution was made for a moral and religious people and is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.
- » Another generation we should emulate would be the greatest generation.
- » They had no problem calling out Hitler as evil and dedicating their lives toward taking down that evil regime.
- » The culture may seem all-overpowering and all-encompassing, but these generations from the past were not afraid to stand up.

7. Be concerned about social justice narratives and false teachings in the church.

Have the courage to confront things that are lies.

"I listened to a sermon that somebody sent me. This pastor literally started equating the United States of America and nationalism with Nazi Germany. He said repeatedly in his sermon that Hitler learned his stuff from America and that our nationalism, the elevation of our nation as being exceptional and superior to others (I'm using his words) is where Hitler got his ideas. That is garbage.

That is nonsense. Hitler didn't get his ideas of genocide and holocaust and extermination of Jews and the suppression of religious freedom and outright evil, from the United States. In fact, the United States and our commitment to a biblical worldview led the greatest generation to recognize the evil of Hitler and to squash it with our goodness." –Dr. Everett Piper

- » It is not wrong to be a nationalist.
- » Remember, At the end of the Bible, in Revelations, God judge's nations.
- » God created nations and God believes in nations.

8. How does this message of truth apply to the economic war?

We need to focus on reality, on substance and facts as we invest our money and as we invest our lives. The truth shall set you free financially, it shall set you free spiritually and physically.

- » Focus on truth and do not allow the lies of the government and the economy to dissuade you.
- » Do not invest in companies that push false narratives or that do not align with your beliefs.

CASE STUDY: NEW NASDAQ BOARD REQUIREMENTS

A look at the new NASDAQ and potential false narrative requirements. NASDAQ which says that the board of directors must be made up with at least one woman and at least one minority, preferably a gender minority/LGBTQ member.

You might want to go after the people that actually know what they're doing to serve on your board rather than going after these false categories.

Thoughts from Dr. Everett Piper:

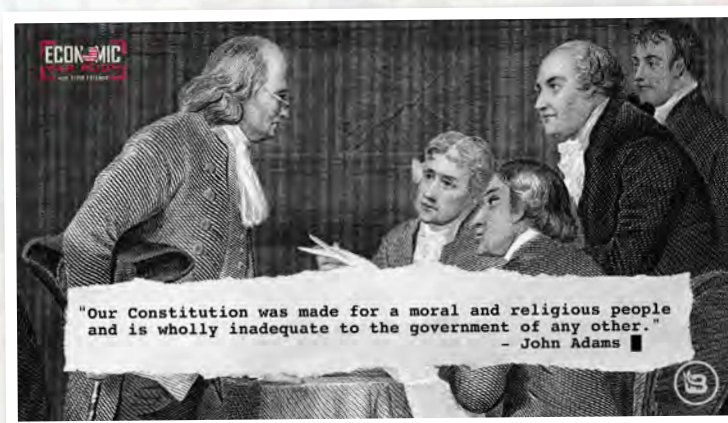

- » I think Martin Luther King Jr. agreed with that when he said to judge people by the content of their character rather than the color of their skin.
- » This identity politics, the sexual fluidity, this fluidity of identity is claiming that I'm going to be defined by my libido rather than my Lord is the greatest lie of our culture and of our times.
- » If I could avoid investing in any company that has bought into that lie, I'd put my money someplace else.

Note: Be careful if a company is not willing to serve its shareholders and is unwilling to put the best talent in the boardroom and in the employee ranks. They're not worth investing in. We need companies that are about the business of their business and hopefully not destroying our values as their primary motivation.

Why You Should Care:

- › The culture is shifting towards foolishness and depravity. We need to speak up and stand together to turn this around!
- › US Culture is being ruled by gangs and that leads to tyranny.
- › God judges nations. While there is a push to a one world government, in the end, He judges nations one by one.
- › The United States and our commitment to a biblical worldview led the greatest generation to recognize the evil of Hitler and to squash it with our goodness. Today we are being told to apologize for being a nationalist, such as believing in national borders, believing in national security, believing in a national pledge, believing in a national flag, and believing that we should preserve the dignity of our nation, and then proclaiming America to be exceptional.
- › You can make a difference by weaponizing your money in your investing, spending and giving.
- › History is important. We can use history to learn from the mistakes of the past and move forward as a nation.
- › We are giving the culture too much control over our lives. "Big Culture" is a real problem.

Action Steps:

1. Stand up for Liberty and speak the truth in love. Don't be afraid to call out depravity when you see it!
2. Pray for our nation! 2nd Chronicles 7:14 is a model.
3. You control your giving, spending, and investing. Nominate your financial advisor to attend our Founders' class coming soon.
 - » Investing, we suggest you get a like-minded financial advisor. We've done surveys and a clear majority of investors want an advisor who matches with their political and cultural beliefs. Unfortunately, Wall Street is pushing for you to just take what they offer and then sets about to force a leftist agenda on you.
 - "If your advisor isn't willing to match your investments with your values, send them to us for training and education. If they won't do that, I can promise you that there are lots of other advisors looking for new clients." -Kevin Freeman
4. It is time to fight the economic war we are facing. Nominate your financial advisor at EconomicWarRoom.com/advisor and let them know you think this would be a great opportunity for them. Classes are launching soon, and our list is growing fast.
