

The Marxist Deception and the Danger of Revisionist US History

America is facing a cultural and economic battle for the spiritual soul of our nation, and it is time we all understand the real truth and intent of America's Founders.

Now more than ever before, there is an attempt to destroy unity and deride America. Some of the disinformation campaigns being taught today include the 1619 Project and Critical Race Theory.

For this week's briefing, David and Tim Barton of Wallbuilder's share America's forgotten true history, the black heroes that helped form America, and new insights about the constitutional foundation that America was built upon.

They review the founders' actual notes and revisions in original documents and demonstrate the falsehood of the 1619 Project. Make no mistake, these are Marxist tools to rewrite history, create deception about America's founding fathers, and push an anti-American agenda.

It is time for Americans to stand together and reject the Marxist Trojan horse being used to change America's government, education, and our economy.

Your Mission: To understand the true history of America's founding and her fight against racism. It is time to promote liberty, and for America to reclaim genuine focus on real justice and liberty for all.

Warning:

"Socialism is economic slavery where your output is taken by somebody else."

-Lt. Col. Allen West

Ep. 4-152 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Special Report. This includes conversations with David Barton and Tim Barton.

David Barton is the Founder of WallBuilders, and his son, Tim Barton, is President of the organization. WallBuilders is a national pro-family organization that presents America's forgotten history and heroes, with an emphasis on our moral, religious and constitutional heritage. WallBuilders seeks to energize the grassroots today to become involved in strengthening their communities, states, and nation.

As President of WallBuilders, Tim Barton has inspired audiences nationwide. Tim has been a guest on numerous national television and radio programs including The Ben Shapiro Show, the Glenn Beck Program, Louder with Crowder, TBN, Andrew Wommack Ministries, Believer's Voice of Victory, and many others.

1. The 1619 Project – A Marxist deception about our Founding Fathers designed to tear down America!

The 1619 Project and Critical Race Theory are a Trojan horse meant to change history, government, education, and economics.

- » There have been attacks on American history and the Founding Fathers for decades.
  - o In the 1970s and 80s they were called "adulterers."
  - o In the 90s they were "not Christian."
  - o Now we see people saying that they were not good people because they owned slaves.

- o To bring in Marxist ideology, the left has purposely tried to demonize the people who made America what it is.
- » Their Goal: To demonize the Founding Fathers and discredit America.

- o Once the Founding Fathers are demonized, you can then get rid of all the documents they wrote that are the backbone of this country because America is "racist."

2. A closer look at how the Marxist left is defining slavery in America vs. reality.

The lies around slavery and America. Absolutely, slavery is wrong no matter how or where it exists. But where did it really originate?

- » 1619 is the year that the left says slavery was introduced to America. They really mean African slaves and ignore the other bad practices already in existence.

Slavery has existed since the days of Exodus. But in North America, it was there before the founding of the US:

- » The Spanish brought slaves to North America in 1560.
- » Before that the native tribes were enslaving each other.
- » Also, in the 1860 census, the largest percentage of slave ownership was in Native American tribes.
- » 12% of those in the five major Native American tribes were slaves.

ALERT: Almost every nation at the time had slavery. THIS DOES NOT JUSTIFY IT. But the left is saying only America is evil for owning slaves. Shouldn't other nations be considered evil as well, then?

Cultural Marxism has failed in the past as they tried other tactics in America.

Marxists first tried to use Economic Theory to break America's unity.

- » Attacks through Economic Class Theory failed – Cultural Marxism originally tried to make its way into America through economic theory.

- o That didn't work because America has traditionally offered great upward mobility.
- o People still believed in the American dream and experienced enough success that this class theory was rejected.

- » Today, they are focused on racism – The Marxist left had to find another tactic and focused on race to divide America. Through CRT and 1619 they are trying to incite racism through disinformation.

3. Now, consider how Critical Race Theory (CRT) is affecting America and how the Marxist tactic is taking hold.

Look throughout history and note who is really leading with racism.

- » Notice that most of the American atrocities occurred under Democrat presidents.
- » Despite opposing rhetoric, the Democratic party still appears to hold many racist values.
- » Today, many leaders in the Democrat party are pushing Critical Race Theory. Do they believe it, are they misinformed, or is misinformation their intent?
  - o Thanks to Critical Race Theory, kindergarten kids are being taught that they are evil if they are white.
  - o Despite great American examples in history of those rising from their character and hard work, an entire generation is now being taught they cannot succeed because they are a certain color and oppressed.
- » Martin Luther King believed in the content of a person's character rather than the color of their skin.
- » CRT is flipping this truth and making it all about your skin color, not your character.
- » CRT is intent on destroying a generation. It is teaching them what they cannot do instead of what they can do.

4. The truth about America's founding is that America and her founders were not primarily racist! They were far from perfect. But looking at the documents most were working hard to create change for good.

America is not perfect, but it is one of the most special places in the world!

"The important thing isn't that we're saying we want to counter the bad by just saying all the good things America did. Let's be truthful and let's be honest. But this is where you overcome lies with the truth. And the truth is, while America is not perfect, America is doing a better job of the good, overcoming the evil than any other nation in the history of the world." –Tim Barton

Lessons in History - A look at the founders' documents and handwritten revisions. This is what really happened.

Many in early America, the original 13 British colonies, were against slavery.

Looking at the original documentation and notes we can understand the true context of what happened:

- » In Thomas Jefferson's original draft of the Declaration of Independence, there is a grievance against slavery mentioned.
- » He says that they tried to pass laws against it, but the king struck down all those laws.

Jefferson's grievance and original text states:

"You (Great Britain) have brought people from a foreign nation in this land against their will and against our will. We've actually tried to pass laws to end this. And you struck down all those laws."

Jefferson goes on and very specifically refers to MEN in all capital letters. "MEN, and a market where men should be bought and sold." The men he's talking about are the African slaves.

When he refers to all men being created equal, he meant all MEN!

See the actual document on video.

5. A choice was made, to have a declaration of the representatives of the United States vs. a unanimous declaration of the United States.

Jefferson knew they needed the unanimous decision to take a strong stand together against Great Britain.

When Jefferson presents his declaration to the Congress, there are only 13 colonies. And one of the things that is interesting, in the very first page of the declaration where it starts off and it says:

- » A declaration of the representatives of the United States of America...

When Congress signed the final draft:

- » It says a unanimous declaration of the thirteen United States...

"Eleven of the 13 states actually supported the anti-slavery language, it was only South Carolina and Georgia at the time, who said, 'We haven't tried to end slavery. That's not a grievance with us.'" –Tim Barton

NOTE: The vast majority of states were in favor of ending slavery. But in the Declaration of Independence, the founders felt it was critical to have a unanimous vote as they sought America's independence.

America at its founding was not racist – "Eleven of the 13 colonies said, 'We agree and we think it's OK to end slavery in this nation.' The vast majority of early American states was in favor of ending slavery." –Tim Barton

6. Some of the key American Black Patriots that should be recognized but are being cancelled through revisionist history.

Warning: Americans know so little about our own history and that it easily allows people to believe the lies like the 1619 Project.

It was the death of a free black patriot, Crispus Attucks, that started the American Revolution. (Not a slave, but a free black patriot!)

- » John Adams said that the American Revolution began not with the shot at Lexington Green, but instead the first bloodshed on King Street.
- » King Street was the where the Boston Massacre happened.
- » The first person who died was a black patriot named Crispus Attucks.

The American Revolution was won thanks to the efforts of a black spy!

- » James Armistead was a black spy that gave insights that led to the last major battle of the American Revolution, the Battle of Yorktown.
- » He provided information to George Washington that Cornwallis was going to be at Yorktown.
- » Because of a black patriot spy informing Lafayette, victory was won.

“You can’t tell the story of the revolution without including these heroes.” –Tim Barton

7. America’s Black Patriot Heroes -More history that should be taught in schools but was eliminated by President Woodrow Wilson.

William Nele, the first black man to serve in the federal government, came out with a book in 1851 that contained the history of black heroes in the American Revolution.

- » More than one hundred black heroes, not just soldiers are named in his book.
- » Throughout the American Revolution every battle had integrated forces of black and whites fighting together. This was an all-volunteer force in term of enlistment.
- » It is interesting to note that the average black person served nine times longer in the American Revolution than the average white person.

There were great black men and women in American history that we do not know today and that is because it was eliminated by a US president who wanted white-only history.

Rather than honor these black men, their character, and their patriotism, it was Democrat President Wilson that revised history.

WARNING: Be careful of the narratives of racism by party, but instead consider their real agenda. Are the policies really about lifting people up and encouraging them, or more about creating disillusionment and reliance on the government?

» Woodrow Wilson, a Democrat President of the United States, created a five-volume book set containing the revised history of America.

- o He did not mention a single black person in the American history. None of the heroes are mentioned, not even the ones that George Washington himself praised.
- o Wilson was responsible for the revival of the Ku Klux Klan. His book was used to form the script for a racist Klan recruiting film called "The Birth of a Nation."
- o He even showed this movie at the White House.
- o When progressives took over education, they used his books as the basis of history.

Woodrow Wilson is a key reason that Americans don't know their own history, especially about many of the black Americans and the difference they made for liberty!

"It's interesting to note that in Wilson's five volumes he does not mention a single black person in American history, not any of the pictures of the revolution, not even the ones that Washington praised. He does not even mention Frederick Douglass, who has more photographs than Abraham Lincoln. It shows a white-only history." -David Barton

8. Examples of more influential black Americans:

- » In 1641 Mathias de Sousa was elected as the first black man in the Maryland colonial legislature of what would become the United States.
- » Frederick Douglass was a great civil rights leader.
- » Henry Highland Garnett is another civil rights leader. He was also the first black man to speak in Congress
- » Absalom Jones was the first black man to receive a certification through a major denomination and he also founded the first black denomination.
- » Phillis Wheatley was a great black poet.
- » Robert Smalls, who was a major general in the militia and a hero of seventeen battles in the civil war. He was an early congressman, serving five terms.
- » Joseph Hayne Rainey, the first black man to preside over the US House of Representatives.
- » John Marrant was the first black American to successfully evangelize to Native Americans.

ALERT: The list goes on and on. America is not primarily a racist nation. The Marxist philosophy of oppressed and oppressors has attributed to our lack of knowledge regarding true American history.

9. The beautiful aspects of our history

God's Word tells us that, "all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God."

- » No one is perfect and the standard of perfection that the left holds is not good.

There are redeeming aspects of our history. People like John Jay, William Whipple, Benjamin Franklin and many more!

- » John Jay Former President of the Continental Congress - John Jay was an American statesman, patriot, diplomat, Founding Father, abolitionist, negotiator, and signatory of the Treaty of Paris of 1783. He served as the second Governor of New York and the first Chief Justice of the United States. (Wikipedia)
  - o He was also a slave owner.
  - o He admitted in letters during the revolution that he felt like a hypocrite for owning slaves as they were fighting for their freedom.
  - o He founded the anti-slavery society in New York.

- » William Whipple was a signatory of the United States Declaration of Independence as a representative of New Hampshire and a member of the Continental Congress from 1776 through 1779. (Wikipedia)
  - o He went to fight in the revolutionary war and brought his slave, Prince Whipple, with him.
  - o He told his slave to fight hard for America's freedom and Prince responded by saying he could fight a lot harder if he was free.
  - o William Whipple freed him on the spot.

- » Benjamin Franklin was an American polymath active as a writer, scientist, inventor, statesman, diplomat, printer, publisher, and political philosopher. Among the leading intellectuals of his time, Franklin was one of the Founding Fathers of the United States and the first United States Postmaster General. (Wikipedia)
  - o He recognized that slavery was wrong and freed his slaves.
  - o He became the president of the Pennsylvania Abolition Society.

10. It looks like more slavery is coming if the progressive left has their way. The irony of socialism and how it really is economic slavery.

Lt. Col. Allen West, the first guest on the Economic War Room, compared socialism to economic slavery.

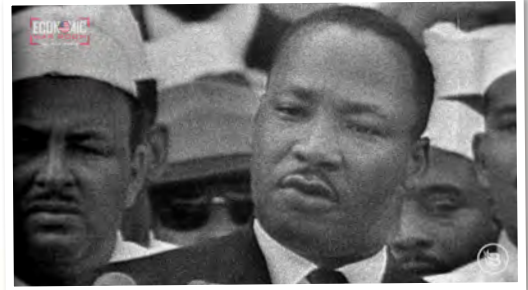

- » What else would you call it? Under socialism your output would be taken by somebody else.
- » Right now, the left wants socialism as the antidote to slavery, but in reality, socialism is just another form of slavery.
- » Our freedom comes from God!
- » God looks at the heart and only categorizes people based on whether they know Him or not.
- » God does not look at race or class.

This is exactly what Martin Luther King, Jr. said. Its about the content of your character not the color of your skin.

WARNING- Socialism is Economic Slavery and it is now racing through America.

“A survey by Fox News conducted this week found that 59% of Democratic voters hold a favorable opinion of socialism, compared to 49% who said the same of capitalism. Furthermore, 44% of Democrats hold an unfavorable view of capitalism, compared to 31% who view socialism negatively.

The new results are a marked shift from February 2020, when 40% of Democratic voters said they held a favorable view of socialism, compared to half who said the same about capitalism.” –Washington Examiner

Why You Should Care:

- › The culture is shifting towards Marxism and critical race theory. We need to speak truth and turn this around!
- › The progressive left is encouraging racism and division in America.
- › Economic slavery is on the verge of happening in America, it is time to fight for liberty now!
- › America as a melting pot and symbol of Liberty is being taken down by a Marxist agenda to divide the United States.
- › You can make a difference weaponizing your money in your investing, spending, and giving.
- › History is important. We can use history to learn from the mistakes of the past and move forward as a nation.
- › We are giving the left too much control over our future generation’s education. We need to teach the history of black American heroes.

Action Steps:

1. Check out the resources at WallBuilders.com and consider supporting their research. <https://wallbuilders.com/contribute/>
2. Take time and be alert as it relates to revisionist history taught across America today. We have discussed previous issues with Howard Zinn and his indoctrination history in previous briefings.
3. It is critical that local school boards be held accountable for teaching truth and history. Make sure CRT and the 1619 Project are not being taught in your schools. Ensure your school board understands the history and links in this Economic Battle Plan™ and get their response.
4. Stand up and speak the truth in love. Call out depravity when you see it!
5. Weaponize your money towards principles that support Liberty, Security and Values (LSV). You control your giving, spending, and investing. Nominate your financial advisor to attend our Founders' class coming soon.
  - Investing, we suggest you get a like-minded financial advisor. We've done surveys and a clear majority of investors want an advisor who matches with their political and cultural beliefs. Unfortunately, Wall Street is pushing for you to just take what they offer and then sets about to force a leftist agenda on you.
    - o "If your advisor isn't willing to match your investments with your values, send them to us for training and education. If they won't do that, I can promise you that there are lots of other advisors looking for new clients." –Kevin Freeman
6. It is time to fight the economic war we are facing. Nominate your financial advisor at EconomicWarRoom.com/advisor and let them know you think this would be a great opportunity for them. Classes are launching soon, and our list is growing fast.
7. Also, if you have not already done so, please consider the following:
