"I want this game for my family. I can play it with my family. I want this game for my conservative friends who are going to love it and find it humorous. I want this game for my liberal friends. Like you said, a Trojan horse, I can put it into their home. I'm buying probably 20 games for the Freeman family that we're going to be sending out for Christmas presents, birthday presents, anniversary and wedding gifts. This is really a moment in cultural history." -Kevin Freeman

1. If Babylon Bee or even Mad Magazine made an Election Board Game this Might be it!

The New High Tech and Fun Board Game Every Conservative Must Have! The fun way to learn what really happened with the 2020 election.

Election 2020 is a game that includes all of the challenges of 2020 election in a fun an engaging way. It has fun with the media attacks, the cyberattacks, everything else, boiled down to a fun exercise.

“What I love about this game is that it brings the actual clips in so you can see what the truth is, not what the media has told you the truth is, but what it actually is.”—Kevin Freeman

Election 2020 brings a breath of fresh air to constituents on both sides of the aisle, providing an avenue to “Let Us Laugh, Let Us Heal” with bi-partisan banter, political fact checks and hilarious “no-holds barred” jabs at the personalities behind the process.

2. Election 2020 is a new board game combines the digital world and avatars to bring an entire new experience.

Even their awards are sourced from the same credible sources the media uses.

INNOVATIVE Election 2020 Board Game voted Game of the Year! – UNNAMED SOURCES

A closer look at how the game works:

“Most gameplay is static. You’re just dealing with the game board itself, and that’s it. Here we’ve got unlimited opportunities. So as long as you have a smartphone or an iPad device and you’ve got this box, even if you aren’t sure whether you want to buy it or not, yeah, you can just come over here and get the QR code, and then it’s going to pull up a mix that describes all kinds of stuff about the game.” –David Clements

3. The New Board Game of the Year - Fake News, Corruption, and Trigger Cards.

 Warning: Gifting this to a liberal may expose them to truth!

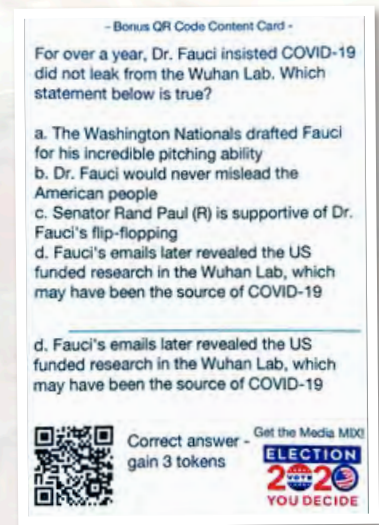

More about how the Game is played.

“Perfect example: Not only can you trigger someone with the card but if you’re gifting this to a liberal friend, you can start pulling up video and saying, ‘you tell me what you think about Hunter’s response when he was interviewed.’ So now you get to red pill the population and see if they can get exposed to information in context that they might otherwise not be exposed to.” –David Clements

In addition to the digital avatars and fun insightful video links the Election 2020 Board Game also Features:

- » Fake News Cards
Answer quick questions about disinformation in the news media.
- » Corruption Cards
Watch video footage of direct candidate statements, flip-flops and factual data.
- » Triggered Cards
Get triggered by the memes and schemes from the campaign trail.

- » EV Tokens
Accumulate sufficient electoral votes to advance to the "Inside Game."
- » Big Four States
Chase the board to battle for the big four states.
- » Inside Game
Battle for the sound bites and swing states that decide the election.

"I love this game. This is the thing that I want to give to parents and in-laws, that I want to give to my brothers and sisters, that I want to give to friends. Conservative, liberal, those that are into pop culture would love this. Those that love the election stuff would love this, those that just want to have a good laugh. They're going to love this!" -Kevin Freeman

4. There's never been a game like this. It's like owning the first Monopoly or the first board game of any type.

“This game allows you to play a board game, ... but it also allows you to hang with your phone, or your iPad, or tablet, or whatever, because people are looking at that all the time. This isn’t like looking at TikTok videos or Instagram only. It’s all good. There are no cat videos in here. This is all funny and yet it’s all true.” –Kevin Freeman

New Game of the Year!! Election 2020: You Decide, Get Yours Now!

“What really surprised me is that when I played it, I did a test run. I was just giggling. I’m not one of these people that giggles and laughs a lot. I was just happy. If we’re going to have to deal with the depressing facts out there, let’s have some fun. Let’s put on our armor. Let’s go out there and red pill some people.” – David Clements

The game opens with the national anthem. I love it. It’s patriotic. It’s factual. I love the fact that you can play and you can win. You have to win the inside game, which is just like real-life politics. This is what families should be playing together over the holidays, at parties, for birthdays. This is a perfect gift. It’s something every family should have!

It’s one I want on my shelf because I want to point and say I was one of the first owners of this. I was one of the first people to get this brand-new category of game! I mean, the mixes, the QR codes, everything about this is revolutionary. –Kevin Freeman

In the Economic War Room®, we encourage Americans to be the “small ships that make the difference.” You cannot solely rely on the government or the president to solve America’s problems. You must make a difference. It is up to you to help take our country back and create a voice for economic liberty. [The small ships are based on Churchill’s Operation Dynamo that rescued the British Expeditionary Forces in the Miracle of Dunkirk].
