

Fighting for the Soul of America

Are you fighting the good fight? Want help? Senator DeMint is in the Economic War Room® to share about a new movement to equip conservatives for battle.

Lately, it seems like every policy the Leftists (on both sides of the political aisle) develop is designed to destroy America, yet too often America is afraid to stand for Truth. Americans want to do something, but they're tired of being lied to. Many don't know what the truth is anymore and they are seeking new media where they can go to find out what's really true.

Through the Conservative Partnership Institute (CPI), it's time to invite people who love the country and the ideals of self-reliance, hard work, family, community, and church to stand together. These are things that are essential to America. CPI's goal is to take this whole idea of the conservative movement and help people see what it really is. It's an American movement and we have to build it together.

Your Mission: To stand together and fight for the values that made America.

"The big problem in Washington is we don't take care of the good people that are elected when they get there ... the whole idea is to support folks who are in the good fight." -Senator Jim DeMint

Ep. 5-173 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes conversations with Kevin Freeman and Senator Jim DeMint. For two decades in office, Jim DeMint has fought for freedom, prosperity, and traditional American values against the Washington swamp. Today, he leads and trains a new generation of conservative warriors as Chairman of the Conservative Partnership Institute.

DeMint represented South Carolina in the U.S. House (1999-2005) and U.S. Senate (2005-2013). Known for policy innovation, he authored leading conservative reforms to health care, education, taxes, and entitlements. DeMint garnered national acclaim from conservatives for leading efforts to ban congressional earmarks, the source of billions of dollars of wasteful spending which had led to corruption and widespread abuse. He also successfully led the fight to stop the McCain-Kennedy amnesty bill in 2007. DeMint is also the Founder of the Senate Conservatives Fund, which played a major role in the election of many of the Senate's leading conservatives like Mike Lee, Ted Cruz, Rand Paul, and Tom Cotton.

DeMint then served as the President of The Heritage Foundation for four years, taking the organization to new heights of influence. Under DeMint's direction, Heritage played a major role in the Trump transition team, with the policy series "Mandate for Leadership" used as the basis for the President's first budget and numerous other administration reforms. During DeMint's tenure, Heritage partnered with the Federalist Society to create a list of possible Supreme Court judicial nominations that culminated in the confirmation of Justice Neil Gorsuch. President Trump appointed DeMint to the White House Economic Advisory Board in 2020.

1. Now, it seems there are two types of Americans – Those who love our country and those that do not.

It seems like every policy idea Leftists come up with is designed to destroy America.

Understanding key insights and needs across America.

In market research, particularly for consumer products, it is important to understand not just the trends but the whole industry.

- » You look at what the customers want. What do they need? What they don't have?
- » How can you fill those gaps?

If you look at the American people now, there are a lot of things that they want, but they're not necessarily political.

- » They just want to live a peaceful life.
- » They want to live in security.
- » They want to have opportunities and good jobs, good schools for their kids.
- » These are very basic things.

CAUTION: There has been a disconnect as we try to live our daily lives. Too many of us have let the political sphere take over our lives gradually. It has happened little by little, and without knowing it or knowing what we can do about.

“What I hear more around the country than anything else is they’ll say, ‘Thanks for fighting. We’re praying for you. What can I do? I don’t know what to do.’ Americans want to do something, but they’re tired of being lied to.

- » They don’t know what the truth is anymore.
- » They ask, ‘What media can I go to and find out what’s really true?’

People are almost begging for, OK, what’s true? What’s true about COVID? What’s true about the border? What’s true about climate change? They feel like they’re being lied to!” –Senator Jim DeMint

IMPORTANT: The insights above is exactly why we built the Economic War Room®. It was built to be your War Room

“Main Street Americans” must protect their money, their livelihoods, and way of life.

The Economic War and The Two Contrasting Visions For America:

- 1. One is liberty-driven. One believes in Judeo-Christian/Western civilization values. One provides the family as a central unit.
- 2. The other vision is top-down control. It is about Marxist Ideas to destroy America.

“You know, I hate to say it, but it’s a Marxists’ kind of view, a collectivist view. And yet they have been traditionally better marketing their vision to meet people’s needs than the ones who have the real answers.” – Senator Jim DeMint

“Those of us on the right, as conservatives we are trying to sell vegetables and the Democrats are giving away free candy. We know the vegetables are better for you, but it’s so much easier to take something that is free. All these child tax credits, everything that they’re pouring on. The more people are dependent on the government, the more political power they have.” -Senator Jim DeMint

IMPORTANT: The American Movement is bigger than any one party. It is centered around American ideas.

Look at issues above and what the people really want are essentially American ideas.

Many in the CPI have been working on this whole idea of what we call the American movement because it’s no longer just Republican and Democrat or liberal and conservative.

The Truth:

- » It’s the people who love this country and the things that make it great. Then there are those that really hate what is essentially America, they’re anti-American.

We need to invite people who love the country and the ideals of self-reliance, hard work marriage, family, community and church to be a part of this American movement. Those are the things that are essential to America.

“We need to invite them to be a part of this American movement. And that’s what we intend to do. It’s not just politics. As a matter of fact, that should be a small part of it. But there are these American ideals that made this country so exceptional that we have to go back to.” -Kevin Freeman

Senator Jim DeMint Shares his perspective on what he sees happening within the Democrat party.

"I've worked with Democrats for 20 years now. I've got some Democrat friends, but I think at this point there is only two kinds of Democrats.

There are those that are misled and those that are evil.

I think the evil people are the ones that are actually pulling the strings right now. They really have a worldview that's completely anti-God. It's anti-American. It's against those liberty concepts that you just talked about.

And there are a lot of other people who are just deceived and a lot of them think they're doing the right thing by helping people and giving them more when in fact, we know we it destroys lives and families. We give things away that really trap people in poverty and trap them in failing schools.

In a lot of ways, the left wants them trapped there because that's where they can get their vote and control them." -Senator Jim DeMint

2. Senator Jim DeMint Launches the Conservative Partnership Institute (CPI) to help expand the American movement that is taking place.

It's about increasing the effectiveness of people who love America working together instead of being pitted against each other by leftist groups.

Progress is being made! Virginia shows that we can make a difference if we stand together and if we work hard and we get a fairer vote count. On this last election, that was achieved in Virginia.

WARNING: There are a lot of things in these spending bills that the Democrats are trying to push through Congress right now that could fundamentally change our country, and that's what they want to do.

The Green New Deal has a lot of socialist spending that is creating:

- » more dependency,
- » more corporate welfare,
- » more cronyism, and
- » a social agenda that moves people into dependency.

One of the biggest problems in America now is the need to do everything we can to keep people from being dependent. That doesn't mean we don't have safety nets, but we don't create hammocks and snares.

- » Once people get in a program that can't get out of it (and that is what big government wants) it feeds their power structure.

Voters are waking up with recent school board mandates and teaching.

"I'm hopeful about America because I feel like it's the people who are waking up. That's what we saw in Virginia and this was parents, and a lot of it was faith motivated, because they were Christian people who saw what their children were being taught in schools. And then the politicians were saying, You have no business being involved with your school. And when you start making moms mad, that's a pretty powerful force and we just need to engage that all over the country."

We're seeing that with the vaccine mandates as well, that people are standing up and saying, Hey, look, I'm not anti-vaccine, but I am pro-choice, at least in this respect.

Senator DeMint: "Look at the data. They keep talking about science, but it is inconsistent:

- » The data shows that children are more at risk from the flu than they are COVID. And we haven't been forcing children to wear masks and get shots and everything for the flu for years, even though it can be deadly for children.

- » They're not telling us the truth and at times are purposely exaggerating the threat for a lot of groups of people.
- » It's to manipulate us, and that's what worries me."

3. More about the Conservative Partnership Institute (CPI). CPI's goal is to take this whole idea of the conservative movement and help people see what it really is. It's an American movement and we have to build it together.

The Conservative Partnership Institute is bringing some of the best and the brightest conservative minds together.

"I've long said that the left hates each other but they work very well together. On our side, we love each other, but we don't work so well together." -Kevin Freeman

One of the purposes of CPI is just the recognition that there is not a hub in the movement that's making it all work better together. The Conservative Partnership Institute is there to support members of Congress:

- » CPI supports their staff, helps them get great staff and train their staff so they know how the place works.
- » CPI also gets a lot of the conservative groups working together to support the good people on the inside, but also to get the message to the American people to be more consistent and positive.
- » The CPI goal is to make other groups more effective and try to keep our heads below the radar and not take any credit, but to make the whole movement better.

About the CPI - Their mission is to fight back against those who want to divide our country and erase the principles and values that have made America the greatest nation in history. CPI is taking action by providing resources, facilities and staff that conservatives have never had before.

Watch this short video on the CPI:

What CPI is building is much more than just a home for conservatism in D.C. They are building a movement for what is right all across the country, a movement for conservatives already in the fight. It's a movement for America.

4. The CPI and Election Integrity

Election integrity is a big initiative for Conservative Partnership Institute.

A lot of what we do is just take care of people once they get into office. But we also look for gaps in the movement that aren't being filled.

CAUTION: If we can't get a fair vote count across America, the whole democratic system will collapse.

- » As it relates to election integrity, Cleta Mitchell, is the best election attorney in the country. She works with CPI as a senior partner, and she's been working with states like Virginia.
- » CPI is also going to be working in Wisconsin and Pennsylvania on Election Integrity.
- » Altogether, CPI has got about 10 target states where there was a lot of vote counting mischief.

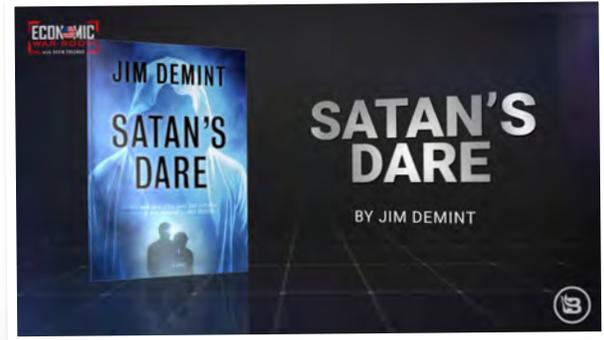

"We think we helped in Virginia and that we can do a lot of the same things actually in all 50 states. We're producing materials now for the entire country." -Senator Jim DeMint

"Getting people to work together is critical. I know we see each other at the meetings and so forth. But actually, having a place, a hub where people can come together and get the best information sharing and work together, it really is a great project." -Kevin Freeman

5. A new book, Satan's Dare by Senator Jim DeMint

Senator DeMint says this is the most important thing he has ever written - It's about the debate between biblical truth and science. Senator DeMint shares the following highlights about this book.

I've been researching it for almost 15 years, and the content of it is all about truth. It's really a debate between biblical truth and science. And the end result is that science actually proves the Bible is true. That God did create the Earth. But we built it into a story so people could relate to it.

The theme:

- » You've got two pastors in the book that go through terrible tragedies.
- » One becomes the world's greatest atheist.
- » After that, the other struggles with his faith and fights with God about what happened.
- » These two end up in a debate, and through that debate, they bring out a lot of the truth of the Bible.

My burden here is I that I know this country was founded on Judeo-Christian ideas. As you mentioned before, faith and freedom go together. You can't have freedom without the faith component, and I just feel like so much of this country has forgotten the truths of the Bible and are afraid to defend it.

- » The book also talks about Jesus and how unique Jesus was in all the world and why we need the blood of Jesus to get to that new heaven that is talked about in the Bible. He's the only one who's ever lived in this world that had spiritual and physical blood.
- » The whole purpose of this life is God is going to unify the physical and the spiritual in this new heaven and Earth. If you want to go there, you've got to have the only blood that's both physical and spiritual. And that's just one of the concepts in the book."

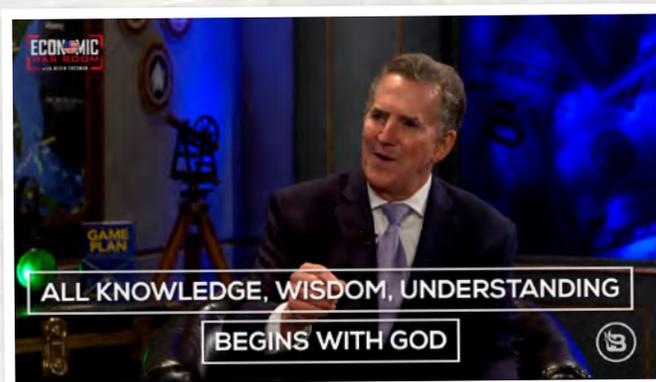

Satan's Dare – A confirmation of Christian faith by Senator Jim DeMint

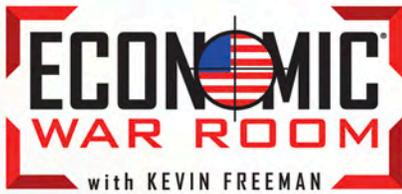

People who've read it told me it did more to confirm their faith in anything they'd ever read. You know, Josh McDowell said there's more truth in it than just about any nonfiction he ever read. And Josh has been working on truth and evidence for his whole life. But what it proves is that statistics and science show that God had to create this Earth and all the complexity related to it..

Why You Should Care

- › It is more important for those who love Liberty to work together than ever before.
- › Judeo Christian values that made America are under attack.
- › Faith and freedom go together.
- › Working together we need to equip leaders with the tools they need to be effective. CPI is helping to make that happen.
- › There are two types of people in America, those that love America and those that do not.
- › Leftists are doing a great job at creating dependence and limiting people's potential. We should have safety nets, but we cannot create hammocks and snares.
- › America is about freedom. But to be free, we have to know the truth. People are being lied to today and they don't know how to defend against it. All knowledge, wisdom, understanding begins with God. We cannot have education without that.
- › Weaponizing your money around your values is more important than ever.
