

The Year the Ruling Class Weaponized Its Powers to Crush Dissenters – What's Next?

We just experienced the most far reaching brazen and lawless attack on Americans by the state and its private sector adjuncts in our nation's history. 2021 was the year of the Ruling Class Crackdown.

Last year, we learned there are ways to silent free speech and keep you quiet that don't involve physical force. Instead, major corporations, the educational establishment, the media, and the government - can just kick you off the Internet, put you on a no-fly list, and bar you from using the banking system. As we enter 2022, the canceling continues but America is waking up. There is hope as the ruling class agenda starts to crumble.

For this week's briefing, Benjamin Weingarten, senior fellow at the London Center for Policy Research, and a fellow at the Claremont Institute, joins Kevin Freeman as we look at the pathway forward.

Your Mission: To understand the ruling class regimes, their agenda, how they are attempting to control society. Also, to stand together around your values. Do not be silenced or demoralized. You have more momentum than you may feel right now!

"We've been in the throes of an anti-cultural revolution for a couple of years now, it's really Maoist in its nature." –Benjamin Weingarten

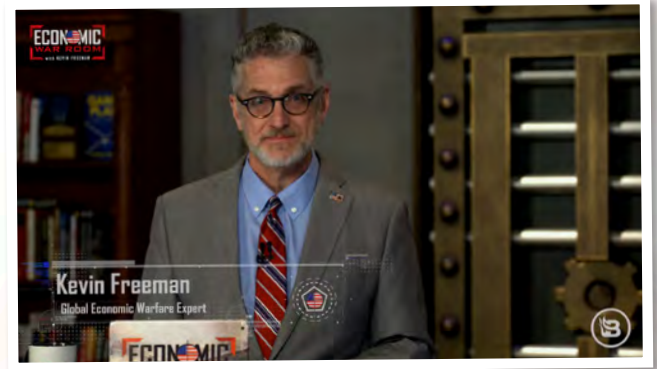

Ep. 5-175 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes conversations with Kevin Freeman and Benjamin Weingarten. Benjamin Weingarten is senior fellow at the London Center for Policy Research, a fellow at the Claremont Institute. Each in their own way are devoted to defending American values, principles, our history, our culture, our national interest, contrary to Woke Capital and far too many of our politicians and administrative state officials.

The London Center is focused on the national security and foreign policy side. Claremont is more focused on ensuring that a truly American regime exists in this country, not the kind of ruling class tyranny that we face today. Each of them in their own silos are focused on defending the national interests of this country, its history, its people.

1. 2021 - The Year of the Ruling Class Crackdown

Submission and silence - The power of government and corporations dominated in 2021.

“Ben, we’ve been on a lot of calls together over the past few years, and I’m a big fan of your work. You cover a lot of the ground that we deeply care about whether the war on free speech, the politicization of our government, ESG, woke investing, or China.

I especially read your January 3rd article in Newsweek and emailed you right away to get you in the Economic War Room: 2021 - The Year of the Ruling Class Crackdown on Dissent.”

–Kevin Freeman

A new PragerU video that seems to set the stage for what is really going on today.

Play and share this video -->

Or read an excerpt from the full transcript below of the video to really understand what is happening today:

Here’s the good news. The secret police are not coming with guns to take you away to a prison camp and a frozen wasteland for speaking out against the government. They did that in communist countries in the 20th century. It’s not going to happen here in America or in Western Europe.

Here’s the bad news. The secret police aren’t coming for you because they don’t have to. There are ways to shut you up and keep you quiet that don’t involve physical force.

The powers that be - and that now includes major corporations, the educational establishment, the media and the government - can just kick you off the Internet, put you on a no-fly list, and bar you from using the banking system.

We can describe scenario number one as hard totalitarianism and scenario number two as soft totalitarianism. There are big differences between them, but in the end, you arrive at the same place: submission and silence.

To grasp the threat of totalitarianism, hard or soft, it's important to understand exactly what it means.

According to the famous political scholar Hannah Arendt, "A totalitarian society is one in which an ideology seeks to displace all prior traditions and institutions with the goal of bringing all aspects of society under control of that ideology."

The state literally defines and controls reality.

Truth is whatever the rulers decide it is. These rulers might say something like, "men can have babies" or "skin color is more important than character" or "the American Revolution was fought not for freedom, but to protect the colonists' slave interest" or "those who resist a vaccine mandate are enemies of the people," and insist that you not only believe it, but affirm it.

If you don't, you might lose your job, your business, and your good name. That dystopian future, of course, is now.

A recent Newsweek article proves that the dystopian future mentioned by PragerU was really the dominant story of last year. The ruling class really did crackdown on dissent.

Weingarten makes the case that we've been in the throes of an anti-cultural revolution for a couple of years now, it's really Maoist in its nature. The most disturbing thing about it is that it's both the public and private sector.

WARNING: "We expect that governments will do all sorts of things to usurp power from us as individuals (even using our taxes to do it). But it's far more insidious and pernicious when so-called private-sector actors, of their own volition, go out and themselves do the bidding of their regime because they are in fact part of that regime.

A look at the dystopian timeline and what actually happened over the last two years:

2020- This was the year of the lockdowns where our natural rights, our most basic fundamental rights were usurped arbitrarily, capriciously, and unendingly.

2021 - Those who dared dissent from the regime's orthodoxy faced the full power, the full force of the private and public sectors in a crackdown on dissent of epic proportions.

"The above was largely under the guise of purportedly national security and public health." -Benjamin Weingarten

2. There were three major buckets where you would not dare dissent from the regime's official narrative.

Talking about these three things, Election Integrity / Draconian COVID Policies/ or Critical Race Theory, would cast you as a danger to society. You could potentially face the counter-terrorism powers of the federal government:

One: Election integrity – This topic gets to the very legitimacy of the ruling class's political power itself.

Two: The draconian coronavirus policies – These were proclamations of which the goalposts have shifted on virtually every one of them.

→ We've seen they have virtually nothing to do with public health and most everything to do with political power.

→ COVID policies gets at the power of the government over every aspect of our life and the biomedical security state that has been imposed upon us.

Three: Critical Race Theory - This is racial Marxism in schools.

- If you dare to challenge that, well, who are parents to dissent when it comes to what their tax dollars are being used to teach their children about?
- CRT is really part of wokeism - it is the regime's ideology, and the regime cannot deal with any dissent from that ideology.

3. A closer look at who the US ruling class is today, and why they may be losing?

The ruling class today comprises:

- › The Government
- › Woke capital
- › Academic Institutions
- › Medical institutions

Think about the above institutions and it's easy to see the ruling class and who acted to crush dissent over the last year or so.

We can break out the ruling class at multiple levels:

At the governmental level, we saw this crackdown on dissent codified in a few different ways, and this involves any number of agencies, and the entire administrative state.

The National Security Council and all the other organizations that it implicated in a so-called national strategy for countering domestic terrorism.

- › They called for a whole of government and a whole of society effort!
- › The objective was to pursue people who dissented from the regime's narrative.
- › To clamp down on so-called misinformation and disinformation.

Of course, this did not include misinformation like Russiagate, the nuking of the Hunter Biden story, the lab leak or other pieces of information that were not officially approved by the regime, until some of them were.

Benjamin explains several examples of dissent from the regime's orthodoxy.

- » We saw the Department of Homeland Security putting out Threat Bulletins, talking about those potentially questioning election integrities in 2020, next it came down to targeting those that question the draconian COVID policies and beyond. These became threats to the homeland.
- » We saw the FBI, the DOJ and other authorities threatened to be sicced on concerned parents across the country.
- » The Biden administration itself advocated for private sector actors to get involved, and that includes Big Tech. I would say that includes woke capital. Obviously, our leading academic institutions, and the medical establishment itself.

CAUTION: "There is whole slew of the commanding heights of society as well as our political class who all share an agenda of usurping maximum power. They claim that the dissenters from their orthodoxy are the real threat to democracy when they themselves are not only anti-democratic, but acting in the very censorious and authoritarian fashion that they claim their political foes act in." –Benjamin Weingarten

- » Another example is when you have Fauci lying to us, then he admits he lied to us. Then he declares he is the embodiment of science itself. Yet, he has been able to get away with it. (His credibility is crumbling so hopefully this is about to end as more people see through this.)

→ If we common folk were to say some of the things like Fauci recently said, "Yeah, well, a number of the people in the hospitals really don't have – I mean, they have COVID, but that's not why they're in the hospital."

→ If we made that same statement a few weeks ago, a month ago, we would all be banned from YouTube, FB and Twitter.

4. The two-tiered justice system: There is an attempt to dispirit America. It is dispiriting because when we see this disillusionment – they can say it, but we can't say it, it really is harming patriotic Americans.

“When you let the rioters get off, the BLM rioters, get off scot free, but then you go after the grandma and grandpa who walked peacefully through the Capitol (and I do not mean the hoodlums that broke in) locked up without normal prisoner rights, that really does cause people to lose faith in their country and really does demotivate us.”

–Kevin Freeman

From Ben: The two-tiered justice system, which means no justice system, is incredibly demoralizing.

- » It is intended to demoralize.
- » It's to show us that there is no equality under the law.

The equity agenda is all about ensuring inequality under the law and in private life as well. It's all about punishing, pounding us into submission, through intimidation and coercing.

The good news in all this is that it betrays weakness!

The reality is that the ruling class, its entire narrative essentially is, that the other side is horrible, deplorable, and a threat to democracy.

They do this because their agenda is failing and they cannot even dare broach that agenda. Look at their policy results:

- » Rampant inflation,
- » Supply chain issues,
- » Spiraling violent crime,
- » The backlash to the draconian coronavirus policies even in blue states.
- » We are seeing the same backlash around indoctrinating kids in racial Marxism in our schools.

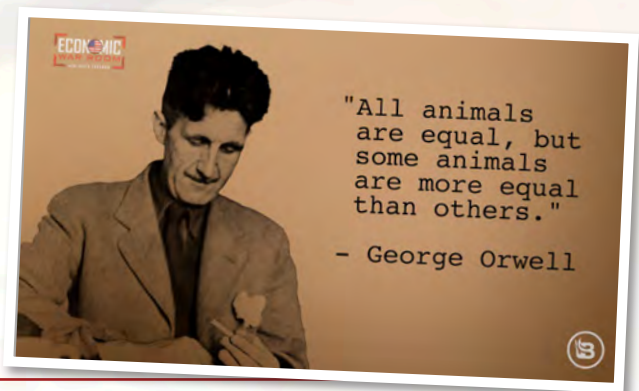

Attention: The left's entire agenda has crumbled!

- » They cannot hide that agenda, so all they can do is try to target, smear, and intimidate their political foes.
- » They try to make it so that we're truly evil and deplorable.
- » The reality is they're acting in the very way that they claim we are, because they project. They always project.

"I think it betrays fundamentally that this is the only card that they've got for 2022. Because the American people can see with their own eyes the disaster of the ruling class's agenda, and they don't want to submit to it any longer." – Benjamin Weingarten

What concerns me is the statement, "all animals are equal, but some animals are more equal than others." When they get to the point, it's either a weakness, which I hope it is, or they have so much power consolidated that they believe they are invulnerable. Lenin in Russia openly showed that he no longer cared about people. He openly killed people. So, hopefully, we're still on the decent side of this. –Kevin Freeman

A wounded ruling class is a very dangerous ruling class. And they're already telegraphing the myriad ways under hysteria and under a perpetual rolling insurrection, which is their new narrative that our democracy is under threat.

- » The New York Times has an op-ed on January 1 of this year, that "Every Day is January 6th."
- » They're trying to exploit, fearmonger, create that era, that kind of zeitgeist of hysteria, and use that to usurp more and more power. –Benjamin Weingarten

5. China and the ruling elite – Why American companies serve the CCP.

Promised profits and a massive market of 1.4 Billion People taking precedence over liberty with many of America's largest corporations and investment funds.

An August Newsweek featured this article: Woke Capital's Deathly China Addiction. Why do American companies continue to serve the Chinese Communist Party?

Benjamin wrote this and explains further:

Woke Capital's China addiction is despicable and one of the more dangerous entanglements that America has ever been engaged in its history.

- » Woke Capital broadly remains enthralled with communist China, largely because of the purported promises of profits and access to a massive marketplace of 1.4 billion people.
- » The Chinese Communist Party (CCP), of course, has attempted (at least purportedly) to cater to Western companies and the like, inviting in western capital, expertise, and technology.

China's strategy has been one of the greatest ruses and one of the greatest influence operations ever played. A look at how it worked:

- » Unlike the Soviet Union, which was walled off from the West, China opened itself up to the West and we opened ourselves up to Chinese influence.
- » Consequently, we have underwritten the Chinese Communist Party's rise.
- » We have armed it with technologies that pose an existential threat to this country.
- » We have helped create our greatest adversary. And now our corporations in many respects find themselves in too deep.
 - Our corporate supply chains are deeply embedded in communist China.
 - The Chinese government's policies, of course, impact how American companies operate on the mainland and beyond.
 - We've seen in recent exposes, for example, about Apple, Amazon and others.

We have given communist China a substantial amount of the power that ultimately imperils our survival as a free nation.

Our ruling class, shamefully, not only remains in bed with communist China, in spite of the fact that it has not panned out from the perspective of profits and growing revenues, over the years.

- » But they increasingly seek to emulate it in terms of this drive for total power and use of technologies against their political foes.
- » It has corrupted us.
- » This relationship has empowered our worst adversary.

WARNING: China has not become more like us as a consequence of engagement and integration. Our ruling class sadly has become more like the CCP.

6. Biden and The China Influence

Benjamin explains this more in another article, from March of last year: Biden Administration China Ties Reveal a Deeper, Disturbing Truth.

We knew about Biden's China conflict. At least we should have known this with the revelation of the Hunter Biden laptop.

- » But we couldn't talk about it because they cracked down on our even mentioning the reality that Hunter Biden has sold out our country with his father.
- » The real story of Hunter Biden can be seen see in the joint report that was pled by Ron Johnson and Chuck Grassley in the Senate. It showed links, ties, coordination between Biden family members and among others, very senior Chinese officials, those tied to the Chinese PLA, the military, and beyond. These were strategically significant industries, including energy.

The financial benefits that Hunter Biden was able to accrue as an investor were clearly based on his father's position at the time (he was vice president then). But it's not about Hunter Biden at the end of the day, or any of President Biden's other relatives.

- › It's about the appearance, if not in actuality, of the conflict of interest and corruption and potential compromise of the U.S. President by dint of his family's dealings with the greatest foreign adversary we face.
- › That is the story that gets obscured and obfuscated when people focus on salacious and sensational headlines about Hunter Biden.

All of that is incredibly disturbing. But what's even more disturbing is how much that imperils our national security given who Hunter Biden's father is. And it's never addressed, and it ought to be hammered home every time.

Contrast this to Trump and Russia.

Every single time President Trump did anything that touched even remotely close to Russia, it was, "well, he's compromised by Russia, a Russian agent collusion, et cetera." How come every single China policy that Joe Biden touches or comes close to, the question isn't asked, "How are your family's financial dealings with China impacting these policies?" Not to mention the dealings, of course, of numerous senior administration officials, which I've chronicled in a series of pieces over the last couple of years. – Benjamin Weingarten

A Summary of China Accounting Issues:

Our Government Allows for No Accounting Standards in China:

One of the things they did early on was this private memo that then VP Biden enabled. It exempted Chinese corporations listing in the United States from having to abide by our accounting standards.

- › Today that's finally in process of being reversed.
- › China can't raise money if they can't lie to us about the accounting.
- › And when we demand that they give us truthful accounting, they just pull out.

→ We have funded them, despite their slave labor initiatives with the Uyghurs, to the tune of trillions of dollars of our capital.

- We have been funding their weapons systems!
- We funded their ability to monitor their people.
- We funded their human organ harvesting and all of those other threats.

“I think this is mass hypocrisy.” –Kevin Freeman

“Woke Capital talks about all of America’s sins at home, and yet that are ignoring that with China. You’re talking about the most evil, genocidal regime. The largest one on Earth. And Woke Capital has underwritten it, aided, abetted, enabled it, as you noted, provided it with relevant technologies for its tyrannical and totalitarian state and beyond. It’s a huge national security threat.” –Kevin Freeman

If there’s one thing we have to do as a country, it’s to decouple in every single, strategically significant sector and beyond.

- » The last thing you want to do is continue working with your adversary in engagement and integration when that is precisely what has built them up to the formidable adversary that the CCP now is.

“We have unfortunately, underwritten what they’re doing, but that’s at the Wall Street level. That’s at the world corporation level. The individual American has no desire whatsoever to underwrite communist China.” –Kevin Freeman

There are three things you can do with your money. You can spend it, you can give it, and you can invest it. In Luke 16:11, Jesus taught and I’m paraphrasing, “If you’re not faithful with your money, nobody’s ever going to trust you with true riches.” And true riches include things like real liberty. Those are true riches. –Kevin Freeman

Why You Should Care:

- › In 2021 we saw the ruling class crackdown and their attempt to dispirit America.
- › The state is attempting to define and control reality.
- › The regimes want you to feel that dissent is not possible.
- › They are silencing dissent around election integrity, the extreme COVID controls and Critical Race Theory – Now you know why.
- › A two-tiered justice system means no justice.
- › Many American companies are serving the CCP over America.
- › China’s influence over the Biden family is concerning.
- › American is underwriting our adversary.
- › America is about freedom. But to be free, we have to know the truth. People are being lied to today and they don’t know how to defend against it. All knowledge, wisdom, understanding begins with God.
- › Weaponizing your money around your values is more important than ever.
