

The Great Reset and the Struggle for Liberty

Every generation is offered the opportunity to create or preserve liberty. In America, liberty has not only been fought for, but it has also been made the centerpiece of society. Everything in American culture has hinged on the liberty of individuals to be free in the pursuit of a better life for themselves, their families, and their communities. For this reason, America stands as the greatest threat to any totalitarian regime that would aspire to world domination.

The World Economic Forum and other Globalist Elites have conspired to destroy America as it is the only nation standing in their way for global dominion. Many Americans have been fooled by their propaganda and indoctrination camps, but some “sleepers” have begun to wake up to reality... and they are not happy with what they find.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Awake, O Sleeper
- » The Great Reset and the Struggle for Liberty
- » ESG – An Environment of Deception
- » Waking a Generation & The “Grand Refusal”

⚠ YOUR MISSION: Understand the threat of a sleeping generation, what waking up is like, how to wake others, and how to resist the Great Reset.

ATTENTION: Elites have managed to subdue many people into a liberal slumber. Waking up is painful and scary but we can save them from their own ignorance, save America from cultural decline, and save the world from Marxist tyranny.

Ep. 7-242 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and Dr. Michael Rectenwald. Michael Rectenwald is a friend of the Economic War Room® and a patriot.

Michael is a distinguished fellow at Hillsdale College. He was a Professor of Liberal Studies and Global Liberal Studies at NYU from 2008 to 2019. He also taught at Duke University, North Carolina Central University, Carnegie Mellon University, and Case Western Reserve University. Dr. Michael Rectenwald is also the author of twelve books.

Since his awakening, Michael has appeared on major network political talk shows (Tucker Carlson Tonight, Tucker Carlson Originals, Fox & Friends, Fox & Friends First, Varney & Company, The Glenn Beck Show), on syndicated radio shows (Coast to Coast AM, Glenn Beck, The Larry Elder Show, and many others), on The Epoch Times' American Thought Leaders series, and on numerous podcasts (The Tom Woods Show, The Leighton Smith Podcast, Steel-on-Steel, The Carl Jackson Podcast, and many others).

Awake, O Sleeper

Throughout history, there have been many men and women who saw through the veil and realized that they were being deceived.

- » Martin Luther realized that the Roman Catholic Church had intentionally drifted away from biblical truth. He, along with many others, began a movement to reconcile the Church to the scriptures, though not without backlash. The Protestants were awoken.
- » Dietrich Bonhoeffer saw through the lies of the Nazi regime and spoke truth to power. Since his execution, Bonhoeffer's writings have inspired people around the world to speak truth to lies and to fight evil with good. The oppressed were awoken.

WARNING: Many Americans, and people around the world, are in a deep liberal slumber. They are entirely unaware of the evil they blindly support.

Dr. Michael Rectenwald is a modern example of a man who was buried deep into the heart of a tyrannical movement that held a veil over his eyes. He always sought to do what was best for him, his students, and America. He was a dedicated supporter of the left. Dr. Rectenwald was suddenly ripped from his slumber and awoke to discover that it was all a lie.

After a lifetime in academia, teaching and indoctrinating America's young, bright minds, Rectenwald found that even he was not safe from the censorship and personal attacks of the Woke mob.

Dr. Rectenwald explains his experience in his own words: “I was basically traumatized by the left. When I came out at NYU and critiqued social justice wokeness... in the fall of 2016... the whole left turned on me with a vengeance.”

Following this,

- » The university forced Dr. Rectenwald into a leave of absence.
- » NYU condemned him for having “wrongthink.”
- » NYU claimed he was guilty for “the structure and content of his thoughts.”
- » As punishment NYU forced him into an untenable position at the university.

Suddenly, Dr. Rectenwald’s whole world was turned upside down. In his waking moments he made an essential decision: to stay awake instead of returning to the comforts of his slumber.

“I really came to see just how totalitarian this whole leftist regime was. And I saw also that their ideology was really the dominant ideology not only on campus but, as we’ve seen, throughout the whole world. I mean, this is really the dominant ideology. It’s a totalitarian ideology, I believe. Wokeness is a menace.” – Michael Rectenwald

What had once been Dr. Rectenwald’s comfort zone was now revealed to be riddled with logical fallacies, evil ideologies, and wealthy elites.

It is ironic that so many who are still asleep feel so confident that they are challenging the wealthy elites with their Wokeness. They consider themselves anti-establishment. As Dr. Rectenwald discovered, this could not be further from the truth.

Instead of challenging the powerful, those who slumber are simply useful idiots in the plans of the Elite. The wealthiest and most powerful people in the world are not simply supporters of woke ideology, they are its authors, provocateurs, and the only group of people who are set to gain anything in the long-term from these insidious agendas. In the months following, Dr. Rectenwald had a rude awakening:

- » He came to rethink all his commitments, particularly his political and economic commitments.
- » He almost instantly became a civil libertarian, removing himself from all liberal affiliations.
- » He performed further economic research and disavowed Marxism.
- » He embraces free-market economics as “the only path to liberty and the only way for achieving a wealthy society.”

These discoveries have inspired Dr. Rectenwald’s writings and teachings as he aspires to stir others from their slumber and reveal to them the truth they have been unable to see.

“The left hasn’t really had to make arguments because they have been in a kind of a “safe space echo chamber” for some time. So, they don’t know how to make arguments. They just simply shut down your point of view and try to erase it and delete it if you will, or even threaten to kill you. Interestingly (there’s) a case that just came up from a leftist professor saying that it would be better to shoot bigots, homophobes, and transphobes rather than to shout them down. I mean, this is where they are. So, yeah, it takes honesty. It takes looking at facts and arguments reasonably, critically, and that’s not what they allow or not what they undertake.” –Dr. Michael Rectenwald

The revealing of one’s ignorance must be handled carefully. The goal must be to invite conversation and gently stir others from their slumber.

- » Far too often, conservatives get excited about destroying liberals with their arguments.
- » While it may feel like a victory in the moment, it harms the relationship with that individual and pushes them deeper into their slumber.
- » Why be awake if those who are awake are rude and accuse you constantly?

The goal of American patriots today must not be simply to wake people up, but to coax them out of sleep in a way then inspires them to stay awake and want to participate in waking others.

KEY POINT: Destroying ideology must be done in a way that does not destroy those who were simply deceived. Instead of defeating hateful ideology with hate, we must love those under the Marxist thumb of the elite so that they may see for themselves the evils behind the veil.

Attention: The sleeper can be awakened, but it is a painful experience. Have grace for those who begin to wake.

1. The Great Reset and the Struggle for Liberty

This slumber that many people experience is by design. The World Economic Forum (WEF) has published their goals for the world. The future, in their eyes, is one where people will “own nothing and be happy.” They call this the “Great Reset.” For this to be true, all objects and forms of property would have to be seized and managed by some other entity that provided access to those objects and forms of property to the people.

This concept has been tried before in every communist country in the world. The people give everything to a governing body, which then redistributes the wealth and property as it sees fit. There's one key problem. Who makes up the governing body and makes those decisions?

In every culture that has attempted such a political structure, a small group of people has become excessively wealthy and abused their power over the wealth of the nation.

It is not that communism fails. It succeeds in its true goal: the subjugation and abuse of the majority for the benefit of a wealthy elite.

The WEF's mission to create a global government in which it gains power and enslaves all the people of the world is public, yet those who are still asleep consider it to be a conspiracy theory.

Dr. Rectenwald decided it was essential for his book to prove each argument with facts and direct quotes from those who are behind it all.

“To call it a conspiracy theory is gaslighting in the extreme because all the agenda is open, it's avowed, and it's underway. Very clearly, it's underway. And I trace all that down. I tie it to the sources. I provide evidence. There's no wild speculation here. This is very, very, almost academic.” –Dr. Michael Rectenwald

Understanding the goals of the WEF and their globalist agenda is essential, but it is not enough. We must also understand how they intend to make these goals a reality. The first step to convincing the people to submit to their leadership and surrender individual sovereignty is fear... and there is no better cause for fear than crisis or impending doom.

Warning: The World Economic Forum intends to use crises and public hysteria to subjugate the free people of the world. (Remember this during the next crisis.)

2. ESG – An Environment of Deception

There is no greater ‘catastrophe’ for the WEF to abuse than climate change.

For decades politicians, scientists, and random internet citizens have prophesied the end of the world, brought about by pollution and climate change. And for decades we have watched their predicted doomsday timelines come and pass.

True scientists and historians know that the Earth’s climate has changed drastically many times throughout recorded history. The evidence was furthered by studies of ice cores showing such fluctuations in climate that predate human civilization.

While the climate is changing, and there are real threats from pollution (like damage to ocean life) none are as catastrophic as the globalists would like us to believe they are.

- » However, this has not prevented them from preaching doom with fervor.
- » The strategy they have implemented to gain control using the environmentalist fears is called ESG which stands for Environment, Social, Governance.
- » Conceptually ESG is a system through which organizations can be judged based on their environmental, social, and leadership impacts.

Ultimately, ESG is a vague tool for granting Woke organizations benefits and punishing organizations that do not submit to the Woke regime.

“Larry Fink, [and] his BlackRock Inc, [are] deeply invested in China. And China has the worst environmental record of any country in the world. They’re building coal plants. I think it’s like almost two a day at this point... their so-called greenhouse gas emissions exceed anybody in the world and they’re increasing it. Yet they’re being invested in by BlackRock, who is one of the leading ESG drivers or dictators.” –Dr. Michael Rectenwald BlackRock is an exceptional example of the hypocrisy of the ESG movement and provides great evidence for the true goal of ESG--Globalist control.

While claiming moral high ground for their high ESG scores, BlackRock continues to invest in nations known for human rights violations.

Many of those who are asleep will demand justice for slavery... while wearing Nike shoes, texting on their iPhone, and driving their electric vehicles... all of which depend on modern slavery or unethical working conditions in their factories or mines.

The Woke ESG movement is hypocritical at its core... and the elites know it.

The WEF annual meeting in Davos, Switzerland often discusses climate and carbon footprint... as the majority of those in attendance arrive in private jets, car convoys, or helicopters.

If the goal of the WEF and the Woke ESG leaders was to fight climate change, they would do so in their personal lives. Instead, they create dictate how other people should operate while ignoring those policies themselves.

KEY POINT: The goal is not related to the climate, it is all about their personal success, wealth, power, and the goal of dominion over the entire world.

“With ESG, they finally have a mechanism for forcing it down our throats, they think. An end around legislation in the democratic process. It doesn’t give anybody a choice. It forces these corporations into either complying or being basically canceled, if you will. And I call it the woke cartel. Either you’re a member of the woke cartel or you’re basically bereft of capital investment.” –Dr. Michael Rectenwald

The situation is bleak as most corporations:

- » Are already preparing for June when their western social media will involve rainbow logos.
 - Look at Ford, they are now redefining tough with their rainbow Ford Ranger Raptor commercial.
 - Others western companies are all rushing to celebrate pride month in their branding and to influence their ESG scores.
 - Look at how Budweiser threw away its loyal customers to promote transgenderism.
- » At the same time, these same companies and their Middle Eastern accounts maintain the regular posting... It is Woke hypocrisy.

WE ARE IN AN ECONOMIC WAR. Instead of forcing cultural shift with law, they are forcing it through economics.

It is an economic war against the soul of a nation with only one goal, to crush the American spirit and force people into absolute submission and dependence on the State.

3. Waking a Generation & The “Grand Refusal”

In defiance to the WEF and the globalist Elite, Dr. Michael Rectenwald poses a solution to this pernicious Great Reset agenda, which he has aptly named the Grand Refusal. The Grand Refusal outlines nine points where We the People can fight back against tyranny and prevent the elites from enslaving us. Below is a sample of some of these nine points that Dr. Rectenwald presents in his new book The Great Reset and the Struggle for Liberty: Unraveling the Global Agenda

1. Refuse Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC)

- » The FedNow project set to begin in July is the beginning of CBDC.
- » We need to establish a parallel currency (the Texas Solution Episode 234).
- » CBDC is designed to control everything: spending, savings, investments, and debt.
- » Any “wrongthink” could be punished with individual sanctions.

2. Refuse Digital Identification

- » Digital Identification will allow Elites to track you from cradle to grave.
- » Even those living offline would be tracked if they had digital ID.
- » Attempts to introduce Digital ID have been made in New York and Ohio.

3. Practice Free-Market as much as possible

- » Remove yourself from any dependence on the State.
- » Get out of public education and other establishment-run institutions.
- » Buy local and be as entrepreneurial as possible.
- » There are freedom cells separate from the global community you can join.

4. Divest from ESG

- » Buy stocks outside of the ESG scheme.
- » Remove money from ESG banks.
- » Refuse to do business with ESG companies as much as possible.

“I have a nine-point plan for stopping the Great Reset, which I call ‘the grand refusal’... The premise is to refuse the Great Reset... we can’t control what these puppet masters are trying to do, but we can cut the strings of the puppet masters from ourselves so they can’t manipulate us.” –Dr. Michael Rectenwald

Many tyrants have tried to gain control of the people, but all of them have inevitably failed. Eventually the people who think for themselves will gain enough strength to resist the evil regime and preserve or reestablish freedom for the people.

⚠ Attention: The Great Reset is the globalist elite's plan to overthrow individual liberty and subjugate the people. We MUST resist.

THERE IS HOPE: Today's scenario is similar to every single one before it, a small group of elites think they can gain control of the people.

However, there is one major difference, the spirit of the American Patriot. True Americans will never allow liberty to die on their watch. This is why America is the true battle ground for the globalist movement. Whatever they can win here, they will win everywhere else.

Americans today must resist the tyrannical tendrils of the WEF and other globalist elites. We must wake up as many others as we can so that they too can see the truth and help fight this oppressive spirit of the age.
