

Background Briefing – BLM Funding - It is Time to Follow the Money

Millions of dollars have flooded into Black Lives Matter. If it was about bringing people together, that would be great news. Instead, we've seen statues demolished, even calls to remove those honoring Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass, and calls to defund or ban the police department in the wake of a tragedy. Lives have already been lost, as well as the livelihoods of a lot of people from mob behavior.

What is the real agenda and who is funding these anarchist activities?

The far left, even Marxists, have taken control of the narrative and people are afraid to speak out. There's a good cause (fighting against racial injustice) and then there's Black Lives Matter. Unfortunately, it's been hijacked by a very radical agenda and turned into both a money machine and a political machine.

Your Mission:

- 1. To understand how the Black Lives Matter organization has been hijacked by labor organizers and activist who are funneling the money into other groups with Hard Left causes.
- 2. To counter these efforts against America and weaponize your money to preserve America's Liberty, Security, and Values (LSV).

"It's multiple organizations overlapping, and names changing and varied. I call it a big bowl of spaghetti. That's why folks need to go to Capitalresearch.org or influencewatch.org to try to untangle it." –Scott Walter

Ep. 3-99 (OSINT) Open Sourced Intelligence Briefing with highlights. This includes quotes and summaries of conversations in the Economic War Room with Kevin Freeman and Scott Walter. Scott Walter is the President and CEO of Capital Research Center. Capital Research Center engages in philanthropic interaction with the public policy process, especially as it relates to the intention of donors.

1. The Black Lives Matter founder is proud of their Marxist Backing and is funneling money to several organizations.

A. The two largest groups are:

The Black Lives Matter Global Network Foundation. They're the ones that if you go to Blacklivesmatter.com, it's their site, you vote, donate, and that money eventually is supposed to get to them.

Movement for Black Lives. This is more of an umbrella organization bringing in supposedly around 50 groups of various types together to talk about these issues.

The Movement for Black Lives doesn't have its own existence. It's physically sponsored by something called the Alliance for Global Justice, which is a left-wing group. They've defended the Communist Tyrants of North Korea and the Socialist Tyrants of Venezuela. They've gotten millions of dollars from George Soros over the years.

BLM also funnels money to another organization called Thousand Currents.

B. Background on the BLM Founders and their inspiration:

The original founders of Black Lives Matters were activists on the Hard Left. Their focus includes much more than black lives and police problems.

Original founders for BLM:

- Patrisse Cullors – An Activist and an art major. A little more about her platform petition can be seen here.

From Brietbart news - Self-proclaimed Marxist and Black Lives Matter (BLM) co-founder Patrisse Cullors called on Democrats to make "sea changes" to their party platform and adopt radical legislation that calls to defund the police force, eliminate both the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) and the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), and close all federal prisons and immigration detention centers, alongside various other radical demands – otherwise, "any claims of allyship and solidarity with our work to fight for black liberation are for naught." <https://www.breitbart.com/politics/2020/07/31/black-lives-matter-founder-dnc-platform-must-call-for-defunding-police-abolishing-ice/>

- Alicia Garza – A labor Organizer
- Opal Tometi – An Immigration activist

Assata Shakur is one of the people, the founders looked to as an inspiration for BLM. She is a famous cop killer and refugee in the Cuban Communist Regime.

Susan Rosenberg (founder of Thousand Currents) broke Shakur out of prison and is also now tied into the Black Lives Matter entity.

"If you give money through Blacklivesmatter.com, it goes to a pass-through entity called the Thousand Currents. The vice chairman of Thousand Currents is Susan Rosenberg. Rosenberg was one of the domestic terrorists imprisoned because she was part of the group that broke Shakur out of prison." –Scott Walter

Scott Walter provides a profile of Thousand Currents Founder – Susan Rosenberg:

Susan Rosenberg was like so many radical activists, somebody who didn't come up in suffering at all. She grew up in a very comfortable middle-class family. She went to Barnard, the women's school connected to the Ivy League, Columbia University.

She was radicalized in college and she joined a variety of different radical violent cells, including something called the May 19th Communist Organization. That was their name for it. May 19th was the birthday of both Ho Chi-Minh, the tyrannical communist dictator of Vietnam, and of Malcolm X, and in that radical effort, Rosenberg became a bomb expert.

When she was finally caught and thrown in prison, she had hundreds of pounds of stolen TNT. She had warned the cop not to smoke it and blow everybody up. She never apologized whatsoever for any of her violence and radicalism. Her only regret was she didn't shoot back at the cops, she said. Rosenberg was sentenced to 58 years in prison for all of this.

On the very last day of the Clinton administration, President Clinton, commuted her sentence and released her from jail.

Rosenberg is now the vice chairman of Thousand Currents, which passes money through to Black Lives Matter Global Network Foundation and various other Left-Wing groups.

E.W. Jackson summarized BLM's vision well in Economic Battle Plan 98.

"What is BLM (the entity) really interested in?"

- They're interested in an incident that they can exploit politically to convince people that everything that they are selling is valid and should be embraced.
- If you go to their website, you see what they're embracing. A lot of Marxist ideas. They want to do away with the nuclear family. They want to press transgenderism and same-sex marriage.
- They've got this whole sexual agenda, which really has nothing to do with Black Lives." –E.W. Jackson

Looking at the history of the founders and connections above, none of this is surprising.

2. Corporations are pledging millions of dollars to BLM but where is the money really going?

While wanting to be politically correct and thinking it promotes racial equality, saves lives, and gets bad police off the streets, many corporations may be surprised to learn who they are really funding and how the funds are being managed.

A. A look at the Black Lives Global Network Foundation.

- The entity has no legal existence.
- You cannot find its board of directors.
- It does not disclose or file a Form 990 like other non-profits do.

B. Instead, the donation process goes to ActBlue which really operates as a dark money machine.

If you go to Black Lives Matter and click on the donate button:

It will then take you to ActBlue charities:

- They list a page of many left-wing groups.

- There is a page for Black Lives Matter Global Network Foundation, but ActBlue will give the money to an organization called Thousand Currents (Thousand Currents is a regular non-profit that files forms with the IRS).
- They may then pass the money on to other non-profits, including the Black Lives Matter Global Network Foundation.

3. Act Blue - The Left's favorite dark money machine. A look at how the Left has been weaponizing this money!

From the ActBlue website:

ActBlue

11,022,047 Democratic donors have saved their payment information with us via an ActBlue Express account.

The best part? Express users can use their account to give to any candidate or organization on ActBlue. And with our ActBlue Express Lane toolset, you can build single-click automatic payment links for your fundraising emails.

“The best way to think of ActBlue is it’s one brand with 3 products. All of them are ways to pass through money to Left-Wing organizations. If you are a good lefty, you probably have on your phone an ActBlue setup just like you do Amazon. You want to buy something on Amazon? They’ve already got your info. You want to give money to lefties, ActBlue has your info and it has 3 separate products.” –Scott Walter

Act Blue’s 3 major entities:

- I. ActBlue, which is a PAC, and it gives money, hard political dollars, to the Biden campaign and things like that.
- II. ActBlue Civics: That gives to 501C4 organizations, which include independent expenditure groups like Planned Parenthood.
- III. ActBlue Charities, which is the third product, lets you send your money to 501C3 public charities, like A Thousand Currents.

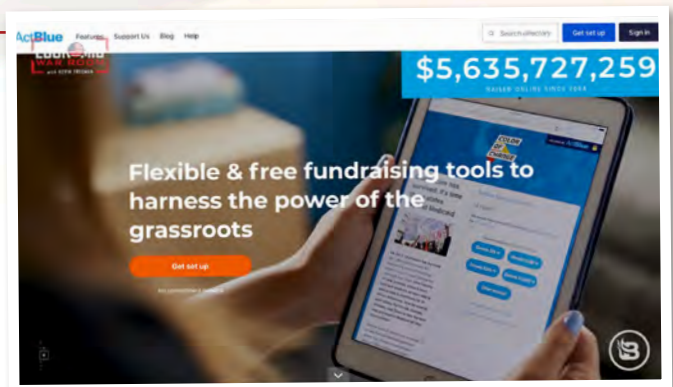

ActBlue's C3 and C4 products are non-profits themselves. So, they should have to file with the IRS.

- In their filings, the reporting is minimal. They just simply list the total amount of money they pass through.
- They don't list the groups they actually give money to.
- They don't list the amounts that they gave to these groups.
- They don't list the purposes.

"I don't know of any other C3 or C4 that doesn't tell you where it's passing money to. While this cannot be considered flatly illegal, I think it's shocking and I think the IRS might rule that it's illegal. But no one has forced the IRS, that I know of, to give an answer to this. If conservatives were better, there'd be hearings in Congress demanding things like this." -Scott Walter

"The donations are washed twice. It's washed by ActBlue charities, which gets it first, then it's washed by Thousand Currents, and then you hope at the end of the long chain, maybe somebody is getting the money that does something that is in line with what the original donor intended."

-Scott Walter

Corporations and good meaning people are giving to causes that they have no idea they are supporting.

What's deeply disturbing to me is this includes good people giving with positive intent. And in many cases, that is being weaponized against their values. What you're telling me, Scott, is that people who say, 'I hated to see George Floyd killed like that, I want to help, and I want to make a statement with a gift to Black Lives Matter.' So, they go to this website. They click donate and they give money and they have no idea really where it's ending up. There's no accountability to know where that money is actually going." -Kevin Freeman

4. About Capital Research Center

- Capital Research Center is uniquely positioned to track all these money flows, all the pieces of spaghetti across all these different movements.
- For over 35 years they have served as the “intel operations” for conservatism.
- Their mission is to investigate the left deeply, and expose it widely.

If you want to try to begin tracing those money flows, there are several resources they provide:

- Resources include Capitalresearch.org.
- Also, Capital Researches Online Encyclopedia of the Left: InfluenceWatch.org. This is your encyclopedia and it is constantly updated.

“There are plenty of corporations that are going to try to be nice and give money away. They’re not going to have any clue about what’s going on. They’re not having people ask them, ‘Why are you giving money to a place with a convicted domestic terrorist on its board?’ If they would go to Influencewatch, that’s the kind of stuff they could can find out.” –Scott Walter

Go to Influencewatch.org and you will be able to follow the money and connections. Examples include:

- How the left weaponizes and distributes their money.
- You find movements like Black Lives Matter or Occupy Wall Street.
- You will find unions, which are often forgotten, but are the 800-pound gorilla of politics critical to the left in infrastructure and funding.
- You find donors, both foundations and pass-throughs, like what has been covered in this Economic Battle Plan™.
- Individual mega-donors like Tom Stier or George Soros are also identified.
- Activist groups are identified along with their leadership.
- All the interconnections are connected, entity to entity, which is a complex network operation.
- There are thousands of entries with over a hundred or more being posted every month.

The Hard Left seems to hide what they believe and is even willing to use funds against what the donor's values are to create their own power.

"It is deeply disturbing, and one of the things that we teach in the Economic War Room® is how you can weaponize your money to promote your values.

But what you're telling me is the progressive Left has weaponized the money of donors to potentially work against their values. What you spend money on, what you give to, what you invest in, needs to be weaponized to support what you believe in." -Kevin Freeman

Why should you care?

- The Hard Left is organized and weaponizing money for what they believe in.
- Those that believe in our constitution, free markets, and liberty are not even playing in the same game as it relates to weaponizing their money.
- Now is the time to understand the economic war being waged against you and your values.
- You now understand what the organization Black Lives Matter is really interested in and how they are washing their money.
- Politicians are allowing the laundering of money through a listed non-profit to happen with little-to-no investigation as it relates to accountability (Think about how the left attempted to take down the Tea Party and their non-profit status vs. what is being done for anti-American organizations like ActBlue. No politicians or the IRS even appear to be looking into if these funds are being used legitimately).
- It appears there are domestic terrorist organizations using ActBlue funding as an assault against our democracy.
- Large corporations are assisting by not understanding where their money is really going.

ECONOMIC BATTLE PLAN™

BLM - FOLLOWING THE MONEY 3.99

CLEARED FOR RELEASE 08/06/2020 (ECONOMIC BATTLE PLAN™ POINTS: 93)

In the Economic War Room®, we encourage Americans to be the “small ships that make the difference.” You cannot solely rely on the government or the president to solve America’s problems. You have to make a difference. It is up to you to help take our country back and create a voice for economic liberty. [The small ships are based on Churchill’s Operation Dynamo that rescued the British Expeditionary Forces in the Miracle of Dunkirk].

Action Steps:

1. We are in an economic war. Make a step to think through how you can better weaponize your money around your values.
2. Go to www.influencewatch.org to better understand what is really happening behind the scenes and how the Left is weaponizing their money.
3. Consider helping Capital Research Center continue their research at www.Capitalresearch.org
4. Encourage your US representatives to investigate ActBlue’s non-profit C3 and C4 organizations and their use of funds as a non-profit.
5. Wake up and commit to take action. It only takes a passionate minority to overthrow a country! Based on the weaponization of money, America is currently losing to a passionate minority.
6. To ensure your money, investments, and giving reflect your values, ask yourself if you are investing in corporations blindly giving to the Black Lives Matter organization that is tearing down America with a Marxist agenda.
7. Learn more about how to weaponize your money. Let’s keep America exceptional with our giving, spending, and investing. Nominate your financial advisor for Economic War Room training at <https://www.economicwarroom.com/advisor>.
8. Call your financial advisor and make the point that you want them to help you weaponize your money to save America.
9. HELP ALL AMERICANS WAKE UP to the weaponization of money and be part of saving America. Send this battle plan to friends and your financial advisor and ask them to sign up for our weekly battle plan updates at www.economicwarroom.com.
